OUTLINES.

The financial situation in New York continues to clear, the runs on the banks have practically ceased and the cash taken out during the run by depositors is finding its way into the stronger banks, thus adding to the currency needs; $10,000,000 of gold is expected from Europe by the middle of the week, and in all the gold imports will foot up $26,550,000; complete relief is expected upon the movement of the cotton and wheat crops. The New York police have searched in vain for Raymond Hitchcock, the actor, who disappeared after having six indictments returned against him for offenses against young girls; it is hinted that a seventeen year old girl knows where he is but she has also disappeared or is in hiding; it is reported that Hitchcock is quietly living in the city and will face his accusers on Wednesday. A serious strike of the employees of the British railroads is threatened. The People's Bank of Portsmouth, though solvent, suspended yesterday on account of the suicide of the cashier of the First National Bank of Charleston, Iowa, where the Nebraska bank had $50,000 on deposit. During the absence of Governor Blanchard, of Louisiana, Lieutenant Governor Saunders has issued a proclamation adding to the call for the special session of the Legislature and it is likely to cause serious complications. The Pennsylvania Railroad's earnings the past year have increased eleven per cent. over those of last year, but the company has decided to retrench in its expenses, declaring that the outlook for raising new capital is unsatisfactory; the Milwaukee & St. Paul road will lay off 1,000 men and the Reading Railroad will suspend 250. President Roosevelt conferred with his cabinet yesterday concerning the financial situation but it was regarded as so favorable that no statement was deemed necessary; the President will go to Oyster Bay for the next Tuesday. Dun's Weekly Review of Trade says contraction in business has followed the recent financial crisis, but confidence is not permanently impaired and only the present scarcity of cash hampers general activity. Fire practically destroyed police headquarters at Buffalo, N. Y., yesterday afternoon and among the records destroyed was Leon Szolgoz's confession of the assassination of President McKinley. New York markets: Money on call, in strong demand at 6 to 25 per cent., ruling rate 10, closing bid, offered at 4 1/2; spot cotton steady 10.90; flour dull and unsettled; wheat easy, No. 2 red 1.05 7-8 elevator, No. 2 hard winter, nominal; corn steady, No. 2, 70 1/2 elevator, No. 2 white 72 3/4; oats steady, mixed 52, natural white, 54 1/2 to 56 1/2; turpentine easy 54; rosin firm.

Harper's Weekly wishes to know if animals have reason. It would appear that some of them have judgment—Louisiana bears, for instance.

When Oklahoma comes into the Union as a full-fledged State, November 16th, the Union will be composed of 46 States, of which North Carolina is the best.

An exchange notes that a blind man married a pretty young lady a few days ago. Well, he certainly beats the man with two good eyes who "can't see his way to get married."

If the "average man" has cotton, wheat, corn, potatoes, home-raised meat, chickens and other things that his farm can produce, he is wondering what it is all about in New York.

An Aurora (Ill.) physician has discovered that peanuts constitute a beauty diet. Hatchet-faced people, however, may not find anybody who is willing to finance them in buying enough peanuts to make them pretty.

The Baltimore Sun is authority for the statement that "it is 111 degrees below zero at a distance of 46,680 feet in the air." That's nearly as cold as the reception a girl can give a man when she "just can't tolerate" him.

Concerning Secretary Taft's tour around the world, it is stated that "in every country visited, Secretary Taft will endeavor for the time being to be one of its citizens." Endeavor, nothing. Taft is a Republican politician and can make 'em believe that he is the real thing, from Pekin to Paris.

"In union there is strength." Another illustration of it is in the New York Clearing House, which, with due respect to all others, probably saved the day in the financial situation in New York. The Clearing House is a union of banks working together for the good of all.

Republican papers in this country tell us that we can get our bananas cheaper because the government of Honduras has rescinded the tax per bunch on bananas shipped away from that country. Please note that this is an admission that the person (the consumer) who eats the bananas pays the tax, just as consumers pay our high tariff taxes.

Impossible Yesterday to Quite Close The Deal For The Water Works.

NO POWER OF ATTORNEY

Another Conference of Officials To be Trade Today at Noon—Plant Now Virtually in Possession of the City.

Owing to the failure of power of attorney for certain non-resident stockholders of the company to arrive yesterday morning and yesterday evening as expected, the formal transfer of the property of the Clarendon Water Works Company to the city under the terms of the recent purchase, could not take place yesterday, though the officials of the city met those of the company three times during the day in an effort to close up the matter and the newly elected Water and Sewerage Company was "standing by," waiting to take charge when the word was given.

As was noted in yesterday morning's paper the parties representing the city the company in the transaction held a conference yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock to finally agree upon all details; then the company gave notice that the desired proxies for non-resident stockholders would be in on the morning train and the formal transfer would be made at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. At that hour Mayor Springer, City Attorney Bellamy, Chairman H. C. McQueen and members of the Commission went to the office of the company on Princess street only to be met with the information that the proxies had failed to arrive but they would most certainly be in hand on the night train. Accordingly another conference for the transfer was appointed for last night at 8 o'clock and all hands were again present. But the much-wanted proxies were again missing, having failed to arrive on the evening train from Richmond and another recess had to be taken until noon today. In the meantime resident stockholders of the company had recourse to the long distance telephone and it was learned that the papers had been mailed by special delivery last night and would reach here this morning. Therefore, if there is no miscarriage, the formal transfer of the property will take place at noon.

The change in the management of the plant will not be noticeable, for it is understood that all employees are to be retained for the present at least and the same system as used by the old company will be continued with the use of the same stationery, books, etc. The plant is virtually now in operation by the city, as when the transfer is made it will date back to yesterday morning at the beginning of business. To all intents and purposes the city is now furnishing its inhabitants with water service and all payments now being made are really to the city. However, there is an anxiety on the part of those connected with the deal and the citizens generally to see the actual transfer and barring accidents this will come today. Then the agony will be over.

KING DRAMATIC COMPANY.

Popular Prices Will Reign All Next Week at Academy.

"A Southern Romance" will be the opening bill of the King Dramatic Company, which is slated for next week at the Academy. The opening will be Monday night and this occasion is to be made extra interesting on account of the courtesy of ladies free being extended; that is, every lady accompanied by the holder of a paid 30 cents ticket will be admitted free if the ticket is purchased by 6 o'clock Monday afternoon.

"The King Dramatic Company is said to be one of the best popular price attractions on the road and numbers some of the best known repertory players, besides some exceedingly clever specialty people. The vaudeville between acts is a big feature and will prove very popular. The opening bill, as noted, is a comedy drama of strong type. It is one of the latest successes and gives ample opportunity for swell costumes and pretty stage settings. The comedy is prominent and of a fresh nature.

The prices for the engagements will be 10, 20, and 30 cents, and seats for Monday night will go on sale at Plummer's this morning.

SOON SUES CAR FOUNDRY WORKS

Phoenix Iron Company Attacks Any Funds A. C. L. May Be Due Baltimore Concern—Attachment Against Brunswick-Balke Co.

The Phoenix Iron Company, of Philadelphia, Pa., through its attorney, Joseph W. Little, Esq., of this city, yesterday instituted suit and attachment proceedings in the New Hanover Superior Court against the South Baltimore Steel and Car Foundry Company, of Baltimore, for the recovery of $37,716 alleged to be due the Phoenix Company for steel furnished under contract to the Baltimore concern, which recently went into the hands of a receiver.

The attachment proceedings were directed to the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, which is cited to appear at the next term of New Hanover Superior Court and make known to the court what moneys, if any, it has in hand due and payable to the Car and Foundry Works, which set up in its petition for a receiver that the various railway lines of the country were indebted to them in various sums upon which they were unable to realize as speedily as the emergencies of the occasion required.

The South Baltimore Car and Foundry Works recently filled an order for equipment for the Atlantic Coast Line, but it is stated that the same was paid for on delivery and that there is now nothing due the car and foundry people upon which an attachment can be levied. However, if there are any moneys in the hands of the Coast Line due and payable to the Baltimore concern it will be held in trust by the railroad company until court meets and a return of same will be made to be disposed of as the court may direct.

Still another attachment sued out was by Mr. Thos. E. Cox, lately with the Gerken Tobacco Company, of this city, against the Brunswick-Balke Colender Company for the recovery of commissions alleged to be due in the sum of $241.80 by the defendants to the plaintiff as commission on sales made by Mr. Cox for the company under contract. Mr. Cox is represented by Woodus Kellum, Esq., and the attachment was for any moneys that might be due on installments by the Y. M. C. A. and the Gerken Tobacco Company, which recently made purchases of pool tables from the Brunswick-Balke Colender Company. The papers were served yesterday afternoon from Sheriff Cowan's office and the return will be at the next term of the Superior Court.

Lad Thrown From Bicycle.

Jesse Blanton, 13 or 14 years of age, was thrown violently from his bicycle nearly in front of Hemenway School on Fifth street, yesterday morning about 7 o'clock and for a while it was believed that he was seriously injured. The hospital ambulance was summoned, but when Dr. Boyd arrived and made an examination of the young fellow's injuries, it was found that he had suffered more from concussion than anything else, and he was taken in the ambulance to his home on North Sixth street. The accident was caused by the breaking of the bicycle from some repairs made to the frame by the boy the day before.

MARRIED IN PENDER

Miss Flossie Anderson and Mr. R. F. Stroud Happily Wedded.

(Special Star Correspondence.) Burgaw, N. C., Nov. 1.—On Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Emma Anderson, in Watha, Pender county, Mr. R. F. Stroud and Miss Flossie Anderson were happily married. The friends of the bride and groom had been invited and were present, a large number of them, to witness the marriage ceremony. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left for the home of Maller Stroud, of Duplin county, where an old-fashioned wedding supper had been prepared and an evening of joy was passed. Miss Anderson is a young woman of many attractions while Mr. Stroud is a popular contractor.

RENDERS STATEMENT

Attorney Justice Itemizes Account of Expenses in Railway Rate Litigation.

OTHER NEWS FROM RALEIGH

Judge Council's Illness Continues. Delegates to Philadelphia Waterway Convention—Founder's Day at St. Mary's.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 1.—In a letter to the State Auditor this morning Hon. E. J. Justice, of counsel for the State in the railroad passenger rate litigation, gives an itemized statement of the expense account of $250 that he collected from the State, regarding which much has been said in the press of the State the past few days. He writes the auditor that at the time he collected the expense account he was about to leave for Washington for the second hearing at that place; that he had already spent of his own money $297 and, therefore, only $43 was on account of expenses yet to be incurred, and an amount more than enough to make up the full $250 was incurred on his next trip to Washington which he followed on September 5th. He gives the following itemized statement of the account:

Trip to Raleigh and expenses while there at the time the case of State vs. Green was tried, $25.00.

Trip to Raleigh and expenses while there in conference with Governor, $10.00.

Trip to Winston and expenses while there to confer with Judge Moore and Solicitor Graves, $5.00.

July 24—Expense of trip to Raleigh to confer with Governor and Mr. Sanford, $12.00.

July 27—Expense of trip to Raleigh to meet representatives of Railroad after agreement to put on 2 1/4 cent rate was made, $6.00.

August 9—Trip to Raleigh to meet Corporation Commission in freight rate matter, $6.00.

August 12—Trip to Raleigh to see Governor about going to New York to appear before Special Master Montgomery, $6.00.

August 15—Trip to New York and expenses while there, $78.00.

August 23—Trip to Washington and stay there August 23rd to 30th, $59.00.

September 5—Trip to Washington and stay there September 5th to 11th, $53.00.

Total, $260.00.

It is regarded here as unfortunate that Mr. Justice did not follow the example of some of the other counsel for the State and itemize the account in the first instance. Then there could not have been any possible ground for a wrong impression to get out in regard to what it was really for. The mistake was honestly made in this correspondence, the information being gathered from sources that could not be doubted. It was just an unfortunate mistake.

Governor Glenn directs Judge Chas. M. Cooke to hold court in Durham county beginning December 2nd in the stead of Judge Council who continues too ill to ride his circuit. Another order from the Governor directs Judge Ferguson to hold a special term of criminal court in Guilford for one week beginning November 16th in the stead of Judge Council. It is feared that Judge Council will not be able to hold any courts before the Spring. He has recently suffered a third attack of pneumonia.

Governor Glenn appoints United States Senator F. M. Simmons, Congressmen J. H. Small and Charles R. Thomas and Colonel R. F. Beasley delegates from North Carolina to the Atlantic Deep Water Conference to be held in Philadelphia November 19th to 20th.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the board of trustees of the University of North Carolina held in the office of Governor Glenn last evening reports showed that there are now 756 students enrolled. The committee awarded the contract for the erection of the new Biological building to N. Underwood, of Durham, the building to be completed by September of next year.

Walter Taylor, a fourteen year old negro had the broken blade of a pocket knife thrown into his eye yesterday while standing close by a steam wood saw. The knife, in the hands of the sawyer came in contact with the belt and was thrown violently against the driving wheel and the broken blade went wild and penetrated the boys eye-ball so that the sight is destroyed. He pulled the blade out himself and walked five squares to a doctor's office to have the wound dressed.

This was "Founders Day" at St. Mary's School. There were special exercises in celebration of the sixty-fifth anniversary of this famous Episcopal college for girls.

Judge Purnell today made an order allowing the temporary receivers to take to Rhode Island the steamers Joseph Wharton, John L. Lawrence, Montank and Oulicksten, now lying at anchor and idle in the Cape Fear river hereafter leased to the Cape Fear Fisheries Company, and turn them over at Tiverton, Rhode Island, to the receivers appointed by the Circuit

OBSERVE FOUNDER'S DAY

Wilmington Alumnae of St. Mary's Honor Their Alma Mater—Chapter of State Association Formed Here—Officers Elected.

Loyal alumnae of St. Mary's School all over the State on yesterday celebrated the sixty-fifth anniversary of the establishment of their alma mater, or what is more properly called "Founder's Day." In Raleigh, the home of the school, the celebration was of more than the usual perfunctory observance, the girls of the school having gathered in the chapel for appropriate exercises, following which there was a general reunion.

In Wilmington the exercises took place immediately after the 11 o'clock service of All Saint's in Saint James' and was attended by twenty-one of the more than two hundred resident alumnae here. While the attendance was not by any means large in proportion to the number, it was very representative indeed and there could be no doubt of the enthusiasm of those present and their devotion to St. Mary's and all that makes for the upbuilding and perpetuation of the school. The exercises were directed by Rev. R. W. Hogue, rector of St. James' and were brief but very pleasing, resulting in the permanent organization of the alumnae in this city for succeeding re-unions and celebrations of Founder's Day.

A very cordial letter was read from Dr. Lay, rector of St. Mary's, explaining the significance of Founder's Day and felicitating with the alumnae upon the sixty-fifth year of the college, paying a tribute to the founder of the institution and calling upon all former pupils to keep up interest in their alma mater. There was also read an extract from the college paper and a historical sketch of great interest to former students there.

The Wilmington Chapter of the Alumnae Association was formed with the election of Mrs. A. M. Waddell, president; Miss Jennie Murchison, vice president, and Miss Jane Iredell Green, secretary. The special object for which the alumnae of the State will work this year is a memorial window and the Mary Iredell and Kate McKimmon scholarships, the two last named in honor of two devoted teachers of the institution, one of whom is yet living.

St. Mary's School was first opened in May, 1842, with 13 students, known in school history as the "original thirteen." Records before 1878 were not kept with exactness and an earnest effort is now being made to secure from the alumnae names and information of all students at this well known institution.

LOCAL PORT PARAGRAPHS.

Two Schooners and Barque in—Vessel in Distress—Memoranda.

Two schooners, an American barque and another vessel in distress arrived yesterday, all consigned to C. D. Maffitt & Co., and bringing cargoes. The schooner Gardiner B. Reynolds arrived from Perth Amboy with coal for the Springer Coal Company; the Edwin from New York with cement for S. A. L. storage and the barque Auburndale from Boston with cargo of molasses for the C. C. Covington Company.

The tug Sea King upon arriving in yesterday morning reported having spoken the schooner John H. May, 319 tons, Capt. Stille, from Jacksonville, Fla., October 26th to New York, twelve miles W. S. W. of Cape Fear bar. There was a strong northeast wind blowing and she anchored for harbor, asking to be reported.

The tug Alexander Jones, Capt. Sanders, arrived in at Southport yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock towing from the bar the schooner Grace C. Seymour, 494 tons, Capt. Gibbs, bound from Boston to Georgetown, S. C. During heavy weather her bowsprit was carried away and other rigging of the ship was damaged. She is at Southport for harbor and temporary repairs.

Yesterday morning a report reached officials of the Wilmington, Southport and Little River Company that a water-logged schooner was off Little River. The schooner Nellie B. Dey was dispatched to Little River to render assistance, but the reported wreck could not be found off the coast and it is believed that the parties making report from Little River were mistaken.

Lieutenant Cravens Relieved.

First Lieutenant Lanier Cravens, Coast Artillery Corps, one of the most popular of the staff of officers of the United States Army post at Fort Caswell, has been relieved from duty with the Nineteenth Company and will report in person to the commanding officer of the Cape Fear Artillery District for assignment to duty on his staff. The promotion of Lieut. Cravens comes with pleasure to a great many friends, but at the same time his transfer from Caswell will be noted with regret.

Court of Rhode Island, for care and preservation. The case is entitled Pathway, against Fisheries, a New Jersey corporation. Suit was originally instituted in New Jersey. A further order is made for the receivers to make a return for their acts at the Wilmington court, January 7th.

THE RECEIPTS HEAVY

More Than Fifty Thousand Bales of Cotton in Excess of Last Season.

STOCK REPORTS YESTERDAY

Nearly Three Million More Dollars in Hands of the Growers—Interesting Custom House Figures For October.

Port statistics at Wilmington for the months of September and October show that there is now in the hands of the cotton growers in this territory nearly three million more dollars from the present crop than there was at this date last year. The calculation to this effect is based upon the receipts since September 1st this year and during the same period last season, the bales being figured at the conservative estimate of $50 each.

The stock report posted yesterday at the Chamber of Commerce shows that 201,829 bales have thus far been received at the port of Wilmington since September 1st this year, as compared with 147,527 bales up to the same date last season, the difference being 54,302 bales or nearly 33 1/3 per cent. While the receipts just now are showing a little falling off on account of the ability of the growers to hold for better prices, the season began with a rush and continued so until within the past week when market conditions were far from satisfactory. The receipts for the month of October ended with yesterday were 139,384 bales against 112,678 last season during October. The receipts for the day yesterday were only 1,779 bales against 3,201 bales same day last season.

The exports, of course, have been in the same proportion as the receipts for the staple is never allowed to remain on the compress wharves longer than is necessary for them to go through the press and be hoisted over the sides of the big ships lying in the docks waiting to proceed across the water, fourteen cargoes already having been exported this season. Exports for the two months this year have been 156,154 bales against 122,310 during the same period in 1906. Of this amount of cotton 1,504 bales this year were domestic exports and 153,560 went across the sea. Only 14 bales were shipped coastwise last year for the two months. The exports for the month of October have been 117,373 bales against 109,512 during the same month last season. Of the exports this year during October 44,732 bales went to Great Britain and 72,641 bales went to the Continent. Last year in October 57,202 bales went to Great Britain and 52,310 to Continent.

The cotton ashore on November 1st, representing that at the compress not yet loaded into ships, consists of 26,391 bales while afloat, representing cotton already on board ship awaiting completion of cargo, there are 19,993 bales, making a total of 46,384 bales ashore and afloat. Last year on November 1st, there were 14,652 bales ashore and 9,901 afloat, making a total of 24,553 bales ashore and afloat.

All this represents an immense volume of business at Wilmington and the port is rapidly growing. Collector of Customs B. F. Keith yesterday furnished the Star with an interesting comparison of the value of exports from Wilmington and the receipts collected from all sources at the port of Wilmington for the month of October 1907 against October 1906. The value of exports for the month this year was $7,529,200 against $6,183,508 during October last year, a gain of $1,345,692, or 21 per cent. The total receipts at the Custom House for the month this year were $7,714,383 against only $1,084,322 same month last year, an increase of $6,630,061 or 611 per cent. When it is recalled that five years ago the total receipts of the Custom House for the entire year were not as large as for the past month, the marvellous growth of the business of the Custom House is easily apparent. Mr. Keith very correctly says that in these figures one can easily see the possibility in this port's becoming the natural gateway of all North Carolina and portions of South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee and some of the Western States. When this is brought about, which will be when the business interests of the State are awake to its legitimate field, every farmer as well as every business man will feel the benefit of the same.

The receipts of naval stores at the port of Wilmington for the month of October show gains in rosin, and turpentine spirits and crude about held their own. This year the receipts for October were: Spirits, 1,349; rosin, 8,657; tar, 2,587; crude turpentine, 1,635. Last year: Spirits, 1,383; rosin, 7,359; tar, 1,577; crude turpentine, 2,194. The receipts for the crop year in naval stores show about the same proportions of receipts in the several items.

A strong, healthy colored man, between 20 and 30 years of age, may secure employment by making application at the Star office. Must give good recommendations as to habits and general character.

Don't forget the opening hour, 9 o'clock Monday, at Rehder's Big Sale.

VALUE OF DEEP WATER.

The importance of the meeting in Wilmington next Tuesday to organize a State auxiliary of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress cannot be too clearly emphasized. A permanent organization is to be effected and work undertaken to secure through the National organization the attention which the waterways of North Carolina and the harbor at Wilmington deserve in order to give the State the best rates which the deep water basis assures. The State branch to be organized here will send delegates to the annual convention of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress to be held soon and it is absolutely important that North Carolina shall be strongly represented there.

One of the strongest editorials we have seen, pointing out why deep water is advantageous to the whole State, appeared in the Raleigh News and Observer of yesterday. It covers the ground comprehensively and pointedly, and it is worth while to repeat it in the Star. The News and Observer says:

"In affirming by formal opinion its ruling made sometime ago in the case of the Southern Cotton Mills against railroad freight discriminations on shipments to the Far East in favor of New England Mills, the Interstate Commerce Commission gives added evidence of the fact that its decisions are colored and its reasoning vitiated by the elaborate sophistries of the 'rate fabric' that seems to have been designed to prevent the trade and competition of the Southern manufacturer from attaining the commanding position to which natural advantages entitle it. The crux of this whole matter is this:

"On shipments to the Orient, via the Continent and the Pacific, the rates to all mills shipping goods from the South are $1.25 per hundred, while shipments of the same class of goods from New England Mills are only 85 cents. Thus is imposed a tax on competition between the mills of the South and those of New England in the struggle for trade in the same great market of 40 cents against the Southern Mills, that have to ship their products actually one thousand miles less than their competitors.

"The discrimination, therefore, in favor of the New England Mill is not only 40 cents in the actual rate of freight paid, but that amount plus the freight rate entire for a distance of a thousand miles.

"When the ruling of the Commission was first made public the reason upon which it was based was printed with amazing frankness as giving a preferential rate to the New England mills to compensate them for the fact that they have to obtain their cotton from the South. Under the lead of this paper, that principle was seen and condemned by the press generally as a monstrous one, so clearly based on sectional bias that it was indefensible. Now, therefore, when the same advantage is given in the formal opinion as accrued from the informal ruling, the reasoning is changed. We now learn that there is no element of a New England preferential entering into the matter, but that, in view of water transportation, the railroads have made New York the basing point on all shipments to the Orient, via the Western seaports. As a consequence, the effect is to create an arbitrary preferential against the South—which happens to be far away from New York than the New England mills—with the identical discriminatory result.

"It must be remembered to fully appreciate this injustice that the case brought before the Commission by the Southern mills was founded upon lower rates granted by the railroads to New England mills situated at interior points and without the advantage of water competition. The case was thus clearly constituted upon the facts of the rates themselves, which are much larger for a shorter than a longer haul to the same destination and by the same railroads. From the Mississippi west, the conditions of transportation are identical, over the same lines and for the same distance. For cotton mills situated in the South, however, almost upon the banks of the Mississippi itself in many instances, the rate is one-third greater than for those mills situated a thousand miles and more away from what would be the natural 'basing point'; and an artificial 'basing point' is created at New York, which is an intermediate point between the New England mills and the West, but one entirely out of the natural course of Commerce between the South and the West, but one entirely out of the course Southern cotton goes West by the direct routes; it must be paid for, however, as though it were first shipped to New York and then, loaded with this initial freight expense, re-shipped from there on equal terms with the New England product. Whatever way the decision is twisted or examined, the fact remains that the reason of the rate and the motive behind all the argument in support of it is the determination of the railroad managements, controlled largely by Northern and Eastern capital, to use the power of the public highways to give undue advantage and afford an unfair method of competition between the industries of one section and those of another.

"The lesson for the South that flows from this typical and representative case is twofold in its significance: It points clearly that there is less than hope in the vaunted idea of greater Federal control of the rate fabrics, and that justice from the transportation monopolies will be finally obtained only when an aroused sentiment shall have made itself felt in every state in which they operate; and, secondly, that the greatest economic hope of the South lies for the present in a persistent agitation for better harbors and deeper waterways. Under present conditions the hour when the South must turn to the sea for the rescue of its trade has imperatively struck. That the South has not the harbors, the lower rates and the greater advantages that follow out of them is not the fault of the South primarily, but of a sectional niggardliness that has prevented their improvement. It is the duty of the South, through her representatives and through continued agitation, to make this issue clear and to force its right settlement. In North Carolina Mr. Small is particularly active in this important respect and is gaining a constantly stronger following. North Carolina should have two great harbors in Wilmington and Beaufort. The Charleston harbor and that at Savannah and other natural harbors on the South Atlantic Coast ought properly to be made the finest in the world. The closing of the South to the world through railroad discrimination when the highway to the ocean is ready to receive her products ought not longer to be permitted.

"As has been shown, the fact of 'water competition' in the case under discussion has no pertinency. The phrase, however, is one of the stock arguments used in every case made out in defense of railroad discriminations. Pending the hour, more or less removed, when the existing tangle in railroad rates shall have been reduced to order and justice, the South should devote every energy to improving its water facilities as the natural method by which to demand the just treatment for her commerce that a dying system seeks to deny."

It is needless to add anything else to the above. It presents the cause in the strongest possible light. It might be added, however, that the article shows that deep water at Wilmington will not only affect interior points in North Carolina, but points as far away as Augusta, where the case originated, as referred to in the decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—This town is nearly two hundred years old. Old enough to have street cars.—Newbern Sun.

—Cheer up. Europe is still willing, even anxious, to lend us all the gold we happen to want.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

—It is quite evident that the President has less trouble locating a Rough Rider out of a job than a bear in the Louisiana canebrakes.—Washington Post.

—The bridegroom-elect may bear the title Count Szechenyi in his own country, but Americans will always think of him as Mr. Gladys Vanderbilt.—Baltimore Sun.

—As we understand Mr. Lewis S. Chanler, he proposes to pitch his campaign upon a point-with-pride platform rather than a view-with-alarm.—Washington Herald.

—King Alfonso, of Spain, and his Queen had a very warm reception in Paris. How could they help it? They had the baby with them.—New York Sun.

—Isn't it all a mistake about financial trouble in New York? Isn't the high protective tariff in force? Haven't we the gold standard? Isn't there a Republican in the White House? Haven't we been told a million times that with these three things nothing but prosperity and happiness could abound in any part of the United States?—Raleigh News and Observer.

—It looks now as if it is a sure thing that the free pass list of the Southern is to be published soon. When that is done, it will be better understood why some people haven't been in a position to see clearly whatever faults there may be in Southern Railway management. And this is not to charge that the user of a pass is bought—not in the slightest. But a pass is a deceptive little thing. It will, all unbeknownst to the holder, exert a surprising amount of influence on his views.—Greensboro Telegram.

—One of the regrettable consequences in North Carolina of the financial disturbance in New York is the suspension of work on the Blewett Falls waterpower on the Pee Dee, with the laying off of 1,000 hands Tuesday. The enterprise was being financed by the Knickerbocker Trust Company, of New York, which suspended last week. It is agreeable to know that there is prospect of early resumption of operations. A work which has been disbursing $400,000 of foreign money a month in North Carolina is of immediate consequence to the State, not to speak of what the enterprise in its fruition will mean to it.—Charlotte Observer.

TWINKLINGS.

—"What luck today?" "We ran down a man." "Did he put up much of a race?"—Pittsburg Post.

—Beggar—Kind lady, I was not always like this. Lady—No; yesterday you had the other arm tied.—Chicago News.

—Barter—I tell you, no man can realize the meaning of eternity. Carter—Oh, I don't know. I spent a week once in Philadelphia.—Somerville Journal.

—Watch—Eight bells, and all's well. Mrs. Pohunk (feebly)—I guess, Josiah, he hasn't looked on this side of the boat lately, or he'd know better.—Brooklyn Times.

—He—How can Mrs. Smythe afford to keep three servants? She—My dear, she plays bridge with them every Monday and they owe her money.—

ANNOUNCEMENT

Many of my customers do not know of the general satisfaction I am giving with house sign painting and decorating. I have not advertised extensively because I wished that branch of work to grow silently based on its own merits and it has done so.

Beginning some eight years ago in your city I have quietly gone on until I believe that no shop in the south does work as completely.

Care for details, nicety of color perception, love of the business, regard for your interest. These are points that have given me an unique place in the painting and decorating business, and am at your service when you want this class of work done.

I am not connected with W. G. Hatch & Co., and when in want of anything in my line see me personally or call 'phones 808 or 136.

This Much Piano Free

The Rest On Easy Terms

You can actually effect a cash saving of $113 by joining with ninety-nine other people in the Ludden & Bates piano club now forming. By selling pianos in this way, a hundred at a time, instead of one, we so reduce expense that our club members get a genuine $400 instrument for only $287—a saving of almost a third. Better still, the club terms are so easy that anyone can have a piano. But little cash is needed. You pay $10.00 and receive your piano when you join the club; the balance in little monthly payments.

The Ludden & Bates

New Scale PIANO

Is in every respect equal to any $400 piano in the world. Full cabinet grand, balanced scale, made perfect by the finest skill and material. Double repeating action, genuine ivory keys and artistic cases of finest walnut, mahogany or oak. Full, sweet tone, with that peculiar singing quality found only in the highest grade pianos.

In case of the death of the head of the family we cancel the club contract and make you an outright possessor of the unpaid balance. The piano then belongs to you absolutely. This free life insurance has allowed the completion of many a musical education, and is worth your consideration. It is practically an assurance that you will not lose your piano through inability to pay dues.

Write us at once for an application blank and complete description of different styles of finish. In this way you can make a selection that will delight you. You can leave the question of time to us. We will see that you get a perfect instrument. A well-made, attractive stool and a beautiful scarf go with each piano. Write for full information of the club that is now forming.

SOUND CONDITION IN THE SOUTH

Wilmington Banks Have Larger Deposits Than Ever in Their History.

RAILROAD TRAFFIC LARGE

Feeling of Confidence Prevails All Over Country—Farmers in Carolina Prosperous—Money to Move Cotton Crop Scarce.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Baltimore, Oct. 31.—Letters from representative bankers of the South written within the past ten days and published in this week's issue of the Manufacturers' Record sound a strong note of confidence and reliance rather notable at this time of stress in the money center of the country and of consequent uneasiness in other parts. Few of the letters undertake to view the South as a whole, but, dealing with neighborhood conditions as related especially to the cotton crop, they present an encouraging prospect generally.

From Atlanta comes the statement that the money situation in the South is favorable in comparison with other sections, as Southern banks as a rule have placed themselves in good position to handle the cotton crop and currency is not as scarce as is usual at this season. In Georgia the manufacturers and merchants are thriving, the textile industry is in good condition as to future orders and cotton is bringing a remunerative price.

Banks at Wilmington, N. C., have larger deposits than ever before, the railroads are doing a large freight and passenger business and although in one or two lines some decrease in the volume of business is indicated, business is still healthy. At other points, though money is scarce, legitimate lines of trade are being properly cared for and there is a prospect of good business for some months to come, in spite of a tendency to slow down. Overtrading and unwarranted expansion of credit have not prevailed to the extent as they have in the East, and while persons engaged in outside speculative operations have felt the tightness in money, no one has suffered materially for legitimate business needs. Banks in Arkansas, where everything seems to be prospering, have, in view of the disturbed condition of the money market, become inclined to scrutinize security values closely, to reduce the lines of credit and to advise their customers against undue extension of operations.

As to the ability of the South to finance the present cotton crop, there is a general consensus that more or less money is needed from outside. The South is growing richer every year, its farmers are building improved warehouses and are marketing their crop much more scientifically than they ever did before, but while the necessity for outside aid is becoming less imperative and will continue to lessen with a few years more of good crops at the prices now prevailing the South is hardly ready yet even to hold back a very large part of its cotton without aid from outside. At present, if the crop were placed on the market all at once, there would not be sufficient available funds in the whole country to move it and neither the banks of the South alone nor the banks of the East alone are able to furnish the vast amount of money required to move the crop under existing conditions, and the good prices for it this year call for a greater amount of money than ever before. Conservative bankers are encouraging the growers to dispose of their crop gradually until their debts are paid, inasmuch as such a procedure helps the credit of the farmer and that of the retail merchant and assists the merchants and the banks in putting accounts into shape for an extension of credit the next season. After obligations have been liquidated, there is an inclination to aid the farmers in holding, and one Mississippi bank has even offered the farmers of the neighborhood that sort of assistance, while some in Texas have been known to call in other loans in order to take care of the crop, although in portions of that State, as in other parts of the South, the farmers have come into such good financial condition that they are not calling upon the banks to help them. For instance, in portions of North Carolina and South Carolina, the farmers were able this year to pay their debts from their tobacco and wheat crops, and while there is very little holding back of cotton it is expected that should the prices decline, there will be considerable holding back. So, in Georgia, most of the "distress" cotton has already been marketed and the balance of the crop is claimed to be in the hands of strong people in a position to hold until prices suit them.

In parts of Texas there has been some clogging of trade because of the holding of cotton, but the banks have begun to bring pressure to bear and it is thought that by the middle of next month the greater portion of the crop in the State will have been sold. This will materially improve conditions. There is some resistance to the development of the warehouse system as an aid to this holding, but on the other hand it is pointed out that a practicable working out of the plan of storing cotton for better prices will keep the market from being congested early in the season and give the compresses and the railroads a chance to clean up the crop as it comes from the gin. Another strengthening influence is that the South is now a manufacturing as well as a producing section, a situation tending to keep more money in circulation in the South and rendering it less liable than formerly to be seriously affected by money fluctuations and to suffer from a money stringency on that account.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The police made 157 arrests during October, according to the record at the station. The number is slightly above the average for October.—By deed filed for record yesterday Mrs. Jane P. Emerson transfers to J. S. Westbrook, for $1,250, property on west side of Third, 116 feet north of Davis street, 41x150 feet in size.—Southport Herald: "A series of services were held in St. Philips Episcopal Church this week. Tuesday night and Wednesday morning the services were held by Rev. Edward Wootten, and Wednesday night by Rev.
R. W. Hogue, of Wilmington."—Robert Martin, colored, was sent to jail in default of $50 bond by Justice Furlong yesterday, the charge against him being cruelty to animals in beating and otherwise mutilating
a mule which he was driving for Jno.
H. Whiteman, the well known colored wood dealer, Thursday afternoon.—J. W. Freeman, agent, has been granted a permit to build a two-story, six-room residence to cost $2,000 on Nun between Fifth and Sixth streets;
also on his own account a two-story, six-room dwelling to cost $1,250 on Campbell, between Fifth and Sixth streets. J. E. Patrick is the contractor for both buildings.—Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer: "For the first time in five or six weeks a steamer has been able to reach Fayetteville. The Lyon arrived from Wilmington this morning, and cleared on her return trip with a good cargo. The City of Fayetteville, which also pulled off a shoal, has reached Wilmington by this time, it is thought."—Robert Sanders, colored, was arrested on Market, between Front and Second streets, by Officer C. G. Jones yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock.
He had a comparatively new Racycle wheel which he was trying to dispose of for $15 and on his person were two razors. The charge against him is vagrancy while his possession of the bicycle and the razors is also being investigated with the possibility of other cases later.

"PEACEFUL VALLEY" EXCELLENT

Sol Smith Russell's Rural Comedy Had

"Em All Laughing."

It was quite the enthusiastic opinion of everyone present that the production of Sol Smith Russell's rural comedy "Peaceful Valley" at the Academy of Music last night, could not have been better. There was a fair house to witness the production, but the attendance was not what it should have been; it is a good, clean show put on by people who know how to act and the scenic equipment of the play was complete in every particular. It is quite as different from the ordinary "rube" show as daylight is from darkness and tells a sweet little story of New England life with comedy sufficient all through to make it scintillate from the first word in the opening until the curtain drops on the finale.Mr. Edward Saxon as Hosea Howe exactly fits the role and is an actor of parts. His interpretation of the ruffled honesty and integrity of his character was graphic. Miss Mabel Wright as Virgil Rand was superb and was an able second to Mr. Saxon in the cast.
Mr. Saxon well established himself in the hearts of Wilmington theatre-goers as a character comedian and his every word seemed to fill the mission of the playwright.The Wilmington public, and that does not bar those who are ordinarily opposed to the theatre for "Peaceful Valley" is in a class all by itself, is to appear here again today at matinee and tonight. It is well worth the inconvenience of a Saturday night to go to the theatre and see this production, which will go down in the annals of the local theatrical season as the best yet.

CARTERCAR AGENCY.

Messrs. Platt & Co. Has Something

New Under the Sun.

Messrs. Platt & Co., since the recent return of Mr. John E. Platt from the automobile show in New York, have accepted the agency in this territory for the high power runabout and touring car manufactured under the name of "Cartercar" by the Motor Car Company, of Detroit, Mich. A demonstrating car of the new type has been received in Wilmington and was seen on the streets yesterday by admiring thronges of automobilists and nearautomobilists. The machine here for demonstration purposes is of the runa-bout type and is on the market at $1-400 with tonneau. It is one of the most perfectly controlled machines ever seen here and is speeded from two to sixty miles an hour. The demonstration yesterday was with the machine driving less than two miles an hour either backward or forward. Mr.
Platt would step out of the machine while it was under the slow motion, walk off to one side, watch the maneuvers of the car for a minute or two and then remount the seat and carry the runabout up to any speed the "average man" would care to ride. This experiment was either running forward or backward and was to demonstrate how perfectly controlled the power in these runabouts is. The Cartercar promises to be exceedingly popular wherever it is shown.

Hit by an Automobile.

While Mr. Jesse Williams, who is employed at the Home Brewing Company, was returning to his home, 118 South Eighth street, Thursday night the rear wheel of his bicycle was struck by a passing automobile at the corner of Fifth and Dock streets.
The wheel of the machine was carried away and Mr. Williams was thrown to one side on his shoulder and arm. He was quite painfully but not seriously injured. The automobile didn't stop and Mr. Williams was unable to get the number of the buzz wagon. He was able to be at his post of duty yesterday, but his arm and shoulder were giving him some pain.PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS.

PRETTY HALLOWE'EN PARTY.

Children of Confederacy Scored Magnificent Success Yesterday.The Halloween party given yesterday afternoon and evening by George Davis Chapter, Children of the Confederacy, in special charge of Mrs. T.
E. Sprunt, at the Wilmington Light Infantry armory, was a delightful success in every way. The attendance was large, including the Daughters of the Confederacy and the Confederate Veterans as special guests, and the entertainment afforded was charming to a degree seldom attained in affairs of the kind by children. The assembly room, which had been transformed into a veritable bower of fairyland, was prettily decorated with prevailing colors of red and white, Confederate and battle flags having been conspicuous about the walls and in the drapings. Mrs. Sprunt, Mrs.
Pritchard, Mrs. Owen and Mrs. R. C.
Cantwell assisted the children in receiving their guests and showing them about the room, which was here and there a reminder of the Halloween with its prominence of black cats, peeping out from everywhere, and the various booths in which witchcraft held forth to mystify and overwhelm
the more timid.Misses Julia Gore Owen and Arra Perry presided over a pretty candy booth, while little Miss Catherine Vol-lers and a bevy of sweet little girls sold plants and flowers appropriate to the occasion. Little Dougald McMillan was on hand with the festive peanut while many other little folks worked with might and main to entertain their guests. In three weird looking niches in the room fortunes were told in true spook-like fashion and nothing was left undone to make a perfect success of the day. Chocolate and salted peanuts were served near the entrance to all guests free of charge, the modest admission of ten cents having been charged. The party was for the benefit of the George Davis Memorial Fund and it is pleasing to know that a neat amount was realized.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

General Secretary Kettle to Speak

Directors in Session.

The mass meeting for men at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon will be addressed by Mr. Edward Kettle, the newly elected general secretary.
Mr. Kettle is a most interesting speaker and will have for his subject "A Man of Courage." Those who listen to him may be sure of an interesting and helpful address. The special musical numbers for the afternoon beginning at 5 o'clock, will be a violin solo by Professor J. J. Adkins and a vocal solo by Miss Carrie White. All men are invited.The Board of Directors of the Association met last night and transacted the usual routine business. Plans for the promotion of the work were submitted by the chairman of the various committees and the outlook is very bright.

Children's Hour at Library.

The children were again most delightfully entertained for an hour at the Public Library yesterday afternoon with "Uncle Remus" stories which were told with great interest by Mrs. Hettie E. Fennell. There were about fifty children present and all were delighted with Mrs. Fennell's version of the always interesting "Brer Rabbit," and "Brer Fox." The children's hours will be continued each Friday afternoon during the Winter and promise much entertainment for the young folks.

Revival at Grace Church.

It should have been noted before that much interest is being manifested in the series of services at Grace M.
E. Church in which the pastor has been assisted this week by Rev. J. D.
Bundy, of Kinston. Rev. Mr. Bundy has been preaching some strong sermons and has made a very fine impression here. Rev. Dr. John C. Kilgo, of Trinity, will be heard at both the morning and evening services at Grace tomorrow. He should be heard by unusually large congregations.Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over 60 years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success.
It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by Druggists in every

THREE GOVERNORS CONFER ON RATES

Governor Glenn, of North Carolina, Meets With Georgia and Alabama Executives.

ALL IN THOROUGH ACCORD

Will Co-operate in Methods of Enforcing Railroad Rates, With Fair Treatment of Roads—Uniform Passenger Rate Suggested.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 1.—Thorough co-operation in methods to be pursued in the enforcement of laws regulating railroad passenger fares in the States of Georgia, Alabama and North Carolina, was agreed upon today at a conference held in this city between the Governors of those States. After a discussion which began at 9:30 this morning and which lasted until late this afternoon, with but a brief interval for luncheon, the three chief executives reached an agreement and the meeting was adjourned.

In a statement given to the Associated Press tonight signed by the three Governors, it is said, that not only had they arranged to "co-operate in the investigation of facts and law connected with the duty of our States to the public and to transportation companies," but that they would also co-operate with other States which have the same problems.

"We regard the complete recognition of the right of States to regulate the interstate business of transportation companies as absolutely necessary," the statement continues.

Today's conference, which was held at the suggestion of Governor Comer, of Alabama, was participated in by Governor R. B. Glenn, of North Carolina; B. B. Comer, of Alabama, and Hoke Smith, of Georgia. W. D. Nesbitt, member of the Railroad Commission of Alabama, Judge L. D. Weakley, and Colonel H. G. Selheimer, special counsel for Alabama, in the pending rate litigation in that State, Attorney General John C. Hart, and Special Counsel J. K. Hines and Hooper Alexander, of Georgia.

The declared object of the meeting was to reach an agreement, if possible, in methods to be pursued in enforcing the rate laws of the States interested, and also decide on some rate that would apply to the railroads of these States, the rates at present being widely divergent.

Just what concrete plan was decided upon the Governors refused to state, nor would they give out any of the details of the conference beyond the statement that it was most satisfactory. The signed statement of the chief executive is as follows:

"Our conference has been most satisfactory. We discussed conditions in our respective States and we arranged to co-operate in the investigation of facts and law connected with the duty of our States to the public and to transportation companies. We will also co-operate with other States which have the same problems. We regard the complete recognition of the right of the States to regulate their interstate business of transportation companies as absolutely necessary.

"No injury has been done to any corporation in either of our States by the exercise of the power of regulation. Increased business as a consequence of reduced rates required by our State authorities has in every case where fairly tried, compensated the corporations.

"We deplore the fact that railroad corporations have been in some instances damaged by the efforts of their officers to disregard the action of our States. This has happened in every case where they have made allegations in the courts of sensational claims of injury contrary to the facts.

"When the railroad companies cease their false cry of confiscation and submit to the duly constituted authorities upon which alone rests the right to determine questions of public confidence and a restoration of normal credits. The authorities of our States are at all times ready to hear from the railroad companies fully and to accord them treatment not alone just but liberal.

"The details of our conference we do not consider desirable to make public at this time.

"B. B. COMER,
Governor of Alabama,
"R. B. GLENN,
Governor of North Carolina,
"H. H. SMITH,
Governor of Georgia."

BRYAN ON MONEY QUESTION.

Says There is No Need of Asset Currency.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Omaha, Neb., Nov. 1.—William Jennings Bryan today gave the following interview:

"I do not look for any prolonged trouble in the business world. Conditions which made a panic and depression in 1903 are entirely different now. Then prices were falling because of a restricted money supply. Now we are in the midst of a tremendous gold production which gives an abundant money supply and maintains prices so that business is brisk.

"The present bank trouble does not show the need of an emergency, or asset currency. I think it presents a strong argument against an asset currency. As it is now there is no doubt about the quality of our money."

GREAT STRIKE IMPENDING.

Employees of British Railroads May Quit Work.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

London, Nov. 1.—Notwithstanding the powerful influences that have been at work for some time past in the hope of averting trouble in the British railroad world, tonight there seems to be but little probability of preventing a strike which will have the most serious consequences to the travelling public and the men and companies involved, as well as to commercial interests generally. The action taken today by the executive committee of the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants, in passing a resolution to call a general strike, leaves little or no hope for a favorable outcome. This society always has been looked upon as one of the most conservative of the labor unions and its leader, Richard Bell, M. P., has been noted for his efforts to prevent strikes and for his utterances in favor of the rights of capital as well as the rights of the workingman.

Consequently the resolution of today is not taken lightly and in view of these declarations and the determined stand taken by the society since the grievances of the men were first voiced—it does not seem likely that the men will withdraw from their present position.

While there is a long list of alleged grievances, the principal one has turned on recognition of the union and this the railroad companies, whose chief spokesman is Lord Claude Hamilton, and determined not to concede. The general strike, however, under the rules of the society and the requirements of the law, cannot take place for some weeks. In the meantime there is a remote hope that the efforts of David Lloyd-George, who with the influence born of his high position as president of the Board of Trade, has been working strenuously to bring about a settlement, will be successful. So far, however, Mr. Lloyd-George's admittedly great energy in this regard has been unfruitful.

but in a speech tonight he declared that he would keep on trying to bring peace with honor to both parties. His earnestness is indicated by the announcement that he will call into consultation representatives of the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants in the hope of bringing employers and employees into line, thus placing him in the position of a conciliatory arbitrator, whose function it will be to hear both sides.

The railroads charge that the present agitation is due to the growth of socialism, and curiously enough while this idea was being voiced by Lord Claude Hamilton tonight in a declaration that socialism was "irreligious and immoral in its teachings," Mr. Lloyd-George was averring in his address that socialism was a "bogy of today introduced to frighten the unwary," and that there was no danger, "but a certain advantage in socialism inasmuch as it stirred the people to think."

SOUTHERN PEONAGE CASES

Former Candidate for Governor in Georgia Indicted.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 1.—James M. Smith, of Oglethorpe county, who was a candidate for the governorship of Georgia in the last campaign, will appear before the Federal grand jury at Athens, Ga., next Monday when that body will investigate charges of peonage brought against him last Summer. Mr. Smith is one of the largest growers of cotton in the State. The charges against him were made by a family of negroes named Howard.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 1.—The preliminary hearing in the peonage case against O. B. Crittenden, one of the most extensive cotton growers in the South, which was to have been held here Saturday before Commissioner Mosely, of the Federal Court, has been postponed until November 26th at the instance of the Federal District attorney, who states that he would be unable to secure the attendance of important witnesses who are in Alabama and Arkansas.

Crittenden is at liberty on nominal bond. The Italian government through its representatives at Washington has been taking interest in the case.

SEVERAL BOUTS IN RING.

Glove Contests Among Light and Middle Weights in Several Cities.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Philadelphia, Nov. 1.—Harry Lewis, of this city, won a decided advantage over Mike Donovan, of Rochester, N. Y., in a six-round bout before the industrial athletic club tonight. Lewis landed almost at will and in the fifth round had Donovan holding on to a severe punishment.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 1.—Johnny Summers, of England, and Bert Keyes, of New York, fought a fast ten-round bout to a draw here tonight before the Edgewood Athletic Club. The bout was the first for Summers in this country since his draw with Tommy Murphy.

Dayton, O., Nov. 1.—Honey Melody, of Boston, was knocked out in the fifteenth round of a twenty-round fight by Frank Mantell, of Providence, near here tonight.

Lawrence, Mass., Nov. 1.—Young Donohue, of Roxbury, received the decision over Parry Scroggs, of Baltimore, at the end of a 10-round bout here tonight before the Unity Club. Scroggs was in poor condition and Donohue did all the leading.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alternative and body builder; sure cure for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy, drugist. 50c.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Some Contraction Has Followed Financial Crisis of Last Week

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 1.—Dun's Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say: Contraction has followed the financial crisis of last week but only to the extent compelled by inability to raise money. There is no evidence that confidence has been permanently impaired; on the contrary, gratification is felt that the Nation was so strongly fortified by a decade of unexampled prosperity that the severe strain made no deeper impression. Many contemplated developments have been postponed, and merchants find rates for commercial paper almost prohibitive, yet retail trade is stimulated by more seasonable temperature and at interior cities collections improve with the movement of the crops to market.

Textile manufacturing plants are not reducing activity, although there is more caution regarding future business. In certain lines some accumulation of stocks is noted but these are in strong hands that are not likely to urge sales at the expense of values. Moreover, there are exceptional instances, most lines being sold unusually far ahead. Cheaper raw material and tight money indicate that some adjustment in prices may be necessary and that it would establish the market upon a healthier basis, but the present time is not propitious. Much satisfaction is expressed in the dry goods trade over the manner in which last week's stress was sustained, giving a most encouraging prospect for the future. Prices are still well above the views of exporters.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—The Charlotte Observer says many Mecklenburg cotton ginners are going out of business because there is nothing to be made ginning cotton.

—Greenville, N. C., Oct. 31.—Parties here from Bethel township tell of a sad suicide that occurred Wednesday morning, three miles from Bethel. About sunrise Mrs. Ann Reddick, wife of Mr. J. A. Reddick, jumped in a well and killed herself. She was missed in a short while. The family searched for her and she was found when found in the well. Three weeks ago Mrs. Reddick took laudanum with the intention of killing herself, but her life was saved then. For some weeks it had been noticed that her mind was impaired, as she acted strangely. She leaves a husband and four children, all the latter being grown.

—Charlotte, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Claude Shaw, a pretty widow, twenty-four years of age, seized a sharp knife and cut a gash across her bare throat this afternoon, dying within a few minutes. Mrs. Shaw was hurt several years ago by a Seaboard train while it was approaching the town of Matthews, eleven miles southeast of Charlotte, and she had never fully recovered her health, having suffered a severe shock and bodily injury from the accident, and this is believed to have affected her mind. Mrs. Shaw won a damage suit against the Seaboard, being awarded $1,500. She died at the home of her brother, J. F. Shannon.

—Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 31.—Solicitor Heriot Clarkson, in a statement given out tonight, declares that he will bring before the grand jury of Mecklenburg Superior Court in December, the alleged fact of gambling at the recent county fair conducted by fakirs and others. The solicitor will, it is understood, contend that the directors of the fair, including many prominent citizens, are responsible in a legal sense to some degree for the existence of the gambling. The solicitor simply declares that he will do what appears to him his sworn duty, not specifying names, but pointing the way to the grand jury for their action. The announcement from the solicitor will create a big sensation here.

—Kinston, N. C., Oct. 31.—The board of directors of the Caswell Cotton Mill met in Fields and Becton's office at eight o'clock last night and elected the following officers of the company: Mr. J. E. Hood, president; Mr. J. W. Black, vice president and manager; Mr. W. D. LaRoque, Jr., secretary; and Mr. F. C. Dunn, treasurer. The committee appointed at a previous meeting of the board, presented by laws for the company, which were unanimously adopted. The committee on machinery reported that they had ordered the necessary machinery and had received acceptance of order saying that the machinery would be delivered in Kinston on the first of July. Stock will be issued to the subscribers within the course of a few weeks. The business of organization having been consummated, the several committees are vigorously pushing their work and the mill will shortly be on working basis.

—Wilkesboro Chronicle: Down at Jennings' Cash Store, situated about three miles south of L. W. Lonsford's, on last Wednesday, Jesse Templeton's little boy fell in the well and was killed. Mr. Templeton is in charge of the store at that place and the dwelling is not very far from the store. The well is at the store and it had been cleaned out and the hands had removed the old curbing and were preparing to place a new curbing. An oil cloth had been spread over the well to keep out the leaves and trash. The little boy, who was something over two-years-old, left the house unnoticed, went up to the well without being noticed and attempted to run across the oil cloth. He screamed as he started down and the workmen as they turned their heads saw him disappearing. When taken out a little later, the child was dead but had not sunk into the water, and the doctor says the child was dead before striking the water. It is difficult to imagine a more distressing accident.

—Statesville, Oct. 31.—News of the narrow escape from death and serious injury of a young man who, it is supposed, fell from a train, reached Statesville today. The young man is Ernest Hadwick, son of Dr. Hadwick, of Marshall, N. C., and had been working in Salisbury for a liquor firm. Mr. Hadwick was found in an unconscious condition at the foot of the railroad fill at Catawba River bridge, ten miles west of Statesville last night, about 9:30 o'clock by a party of "possum hunters." He was lying within a few feet of the river bank and his shoulders and other parts of his body were found to be badly crushed and mangled. The hunters carried him to Catawba station and a physician was called, who stated that the chances for the recovery of the young man were slight. Mr. Hadwick was a passenger on a special passenger train which passed through Statesville going west about 8 o'clock. It is supposed that he fell from the platform of the train and rolled down the embankment.

A Hard Debt to Pay.
"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for the rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy, druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

First Thing

"When I Feel Bad"

writes Mrs. R. H. Cox, of Jasper, Ala., "the first thing I do, is to take a dose of Cardui, and it relieves."

"I have kept Cardui in the house now, for about 12 years, am nearly 50 years old, and have no female trouble, like so many women."

"What a wonderful medicine Cardui is! I wish I could put it into every home in the world. When any woman is at my house, and complains, I just give her a dose of Cardui. I am glad to tell other women what it has done for me. I tell women, right before the doctors, to get themselves a bottle of Cardui, and they won't need any doctors."

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
New York, Nov. 1.—The stock market was tranquil today with a firm undertone and sank into a condition of semi-stagnation after various irregular but narrow fluctuations, being still under the restrictions of the banking situation. The gradual clearing of this situation reflects a feeling of growing confidence in the stock market, but the facilities for its expression are still hampered. Tentative operations on margin which have cropped up with the easing of the call loan rates receive no encouragement from bankers. Houses with interior connections assert that there is a potential demand for stocks from points outside of New York, but that the execution of orders from these sources may await the receipt of actual cases of shipments owing to the difficulties in the way of exchange operations.
The decline in the September net earnings of Pennsylvania and the announcement of proposed retrenchment in improvement outlay did not affect the sustaining strength of the whole list.
Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,351,000. United States 2's advanced 1-4 and the 3's 1-2 cent on call.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
New York, Nov. 1.—After an early decline today the cotton market firmed up on covering by local shorts and a renewal of bull support. The close was firm at a net advance of 6 to 26 points. Sales were estimated at 200,000 bales.

The opening was steady at a decline of 4 and 8 points and during the early session the market sold off to a net loss of nine points on the more active months under liquidation and local bear pressure which was encouraged by lower Liverpool cables and reports of suspensions in Southern banking circles.

There was buying by European houses at the decline and around 10.04 for January the market was steadier by covering with fresh offerings for short account restricted by weak end considerations and the absence of bearish news from Southern spot markets. The high point was reached late in the day when January sold at 10.32 and March at 10.31, or about 25 to 26 points above the low level of the morning and four to 19 points net higher. The close was a little off from the best on the later months under realizing. Southern spot markets as officially reported were 1-8c higher to 1-4c lower. Wires were received from Georgia, stating that banks were refusing to lend money on cotton, but comparatively little news bearing on the spot situation reached the market. It was a holiday in New Orleans. The Liverpool crop export estimates the yield at 12,000,000 bales maximum.

Receipts at the ports today, 59,491 bales, against 57,919 last week, and 56,000 st year. For the week, 350,000 bales against 321,615 last week, and 480,000 st year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 4,212 bales, against 15,411 last year.

Spot cotton closed steady. Middling uplands, 10.90; middling Gulf, 11.15; sales, 3,023 bales. Futures opened steady and closed firm.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
New York, Nov. 1.—The dry goods market was quiet and fairly steady for the day. Collections are unsatisfactory and the financial situation is complicating trade a great deal. Cotton goods are easier. Carpets will be no higher for the coming Spring season. Some lines of woollens are easier for immediate delivery.
Fall River, Mass., Nov. 1.—The weekly sales of the princetown market are estimated at 30,000 pieces. The week just ended has been one of the duller for many weeks, only with one quart of the total products having been disposed of. The demand is very light and orders taken were mostly for nearby deliveries.

Despite the present quiet spell the tone continues firm at the following prices:
25 inches 64 by 64, 5 1-4; 28 inches 64 by 60, 6 7-8; 38 1-2 inch 64 squares, 6 5-8; 39 inch 68 by 72, 7 3-4.

CRISIS CLEARING IN NEW YORK

Deposits Withdrawn From Weak Banks Being Redeposited in Stronger Banks.

CURRENCY SUPPLY SHORT

Gold Shipments of $26,550,000 Coming From Europe—Money to Move Cotton and Wheat Crops Will Make Situation Easy.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 1.—The financial situation was gradually clearing today without showing any striking features. Runs on the banks and trust companies are practically over, money which was temporarily withdrawn from banks subject to runs is flowing into the stronger banks, and currency is being provided in most cases where the demand for it is considered legitimate. Further engagements of gold by Boston and other points have brought up the total engagements abroad under the recent movement to $26,550,000. The Lusitania, which sailed from Liverpool today, has on board about $10,000,000 in gold, one of the largest single shipments ever made. Prices on the Stock Exchange were firm during the early part of the day and did not yield seriously at any time. The fact that the Stock Exchanges of London and Paris were closed on account of All Saints Day prevented any comparison of quota or arbitrage operations.

Balances at the Clearing House have settled down to a normal condition, but there is still something of a blockade in domestic exchange, through the unwillingness of New York banks to pay currency upon drafts from other cities and the unwillingness of other cities to pay out their currency upon drafts from New York. The conditions of affairs indicate a continued pressure for currency rather than a break down of credits, but reasonable demands are being met for regular customers of the banks. The possibility of hastening the export movement of wheat and cotton still engages the attention of those who endeavor to keep in touch with the general situation. Doubt is expressed whether the Secretary of the Treasury will be able to carry out on any considerable scale the project of the New Orleans exporters for accepting cash at government fiscal agencies abroad and transferring it by telegraph to points in this country, but Secretary Cortelyou is understood to be willing to make such deposits of public money at cotton exporting points as will to a considerable extent relieve the strain.

The bank clearings for the week ending October 31, 1907, show an aggregate of $9,021,754,000 as against $3,194,807,000 last week, and $2,915,223,000 the corresponding week last year.

New Money Issued.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Comptroller Ridgely announced at the close of business today that $1,339,000 of circulation notes had been issued by the Treasury today to various National banks of the country. The names of the banks taking out the notes were not disclosed.

This action by the banks was in response to Comptroller Ridgely's circular suggesting the taking out of additional circulation notes by the National banks.

It is expected that the receipt by the Treasury of bonds as a basis for the issue of National bank notes will increase in volume for days and the shipments of currency, of course, will increase correspondingly.

No Relief for New Orleans.

New Orleans, Nov. 1.—Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou wired today that the Treasury Department could not transfer money from London to New Orleans as suggested by cotton exporters here. The plan was to have cash deposited with United States fiscal agents abroad and immediately upon such deposit to draw cash at the sub-treasury here.

TWO SMALL BANKS SUSPEND.

One in Portsmouth is Solvent and Will Re-open.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.) Portsmouth, Va., Nov. 1.—The People's Bank of Portsmouth with a capitalization of $50,000 owing to a heavy demand of depositors yesterday and inability to realize needed cash on its assets failed to open its doors today. The bank is declared to be entirely solvent and an effort is being made to raise sufficient cash for its re-opening at an early date.

Grand Island, Neb., Nov. 1.—The Commercial State Bank, deposits $380,000 closed today. It had $50,000 in the First National Bank of Charleston, Iowa, whose cashier yesterday committed suicide.

OFFICERS HELD RESPONSIBLE

Fight Between Russian Warships Due to Bad Service.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.) St. Petersburg, Nov. 1.—Captain Baron Persson, commander of the port of Vladivostok, who formerly was the Russian naval attaché at Washington, his assistant, Captain Glizan and Colonel Silman, the chief quartermaster, have been officially reprimanded on account of the Vladivostok mutiny. Silman's reprimand is couched in the most severe terms, indicating that the mutiny was not purely revolutionary but was based on service conditions to a certain extent.

MISSING ACTOR IS IN HIDING

Raymond Hitchcock Said to Be Quietly Living in New York.

POLICE SEARCH IN VAIN

Hint That Seventeen Year Old Girl Knows Where He is—Friends Believe That He Will Face His Accusers.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 1.—The bondsmen of Raymond Hitchcock still have five days in which to deliver the comedian to the court where he is charged with offenses against young girls. It was hinted today that the actor was living quietly in this city and would be on hand to face his accusers when the case is called next Wednesday. Neither his wife, it is said, nor his bondsmen and counsel have received the slightest clue to his whereabouts, however.

The police who, without regard to the original case, seek to make an immediate arrest on the strength of six indictments returned by the grand jury on Wednesday, the day that Hitchcock disappeared, continued their search today, canvassing the lodging houses of the theatrical district, keeping men posted at the railway and steamship terminals and even calling on the authorities of other cities to hold Hitchcock should he be recognized in their localities.

A new twist to the complicated case was given today when the police attempted to locate Belle McKenzie, aged 17 years, one of Hitchcock's accusers. She left home a month ago and subsequently took rooms in West Sixtieth Street. According to agents of the Children's Society, she has met Hitchcock since his troubles began. She left her last place about the time the actor was indicted. The police believe the girl could throw some light on what has become of Hitchcock.

It was said today that effort would be made to obtain the release under habeas corpus proceedings of Elsie Voeks and Helen von Hagen, two of the girls who testified before the grand jury and who are now detained in the House of the Good Shepherd. The agents of the Gerry Society will probably fight the release, alleging that friends of Hitchcock are behind the proceedings.

FRICITION IN LOUISIANA.

Lieutenant Governor Steals March in Absence of Governor.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.) Norfolk, Va., Nov. 1.—Governor Blanchard, of Louisiana, who returned to the Jamestown Exposition today from New York leaves for home tonight. He declared that no questions other than those cited in his call of October 25th for a special session of the Louisiana Legislature can be considered by that body.

Governor Blanchard says the injection of the additional railroad and corporation regulation subjects for consideration at the thirty days special session of the Legislature, provided for in the new proclamation by Lieutenant Governor Saunders, "if allowed to stand, would confuse, embarrass and likely defeat the very fiscal reforms which alone justify calling the extra session, would take up the time of the Legislature to the exclusion of the very objects which prompted me to call the extra session, and would precipitate upon the capital a strong corporation and railway lobby."

After declaring that Lieutenant Governor Saunders, as an aspirant for the gubernatorial nomination, has been on the stump for four months past with two other candidates, opposing, Governor Blanchard says:

"It is my belief that it is not for the best interests of the State of Louisiana just now, to permit the lieutenant governor's proclamation to stand."

LEON CZOLGOSZ'S CONFESSION

Fire Destroyed. It With Police Headquarters at Buffalo.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.) Buffalo, Nov. 1.—Police headquarters of this city was practically ruined this afternoon by fire discovered in the lavatory and which spread rapidly through the two top floors. All of the thirty prisoners were removed in safety. This is the fourth time the building has been on fire within a few months. Police records, the rogues' gallery and many important documents, including the original copy of Leon Czolgosz's confession of the assassination of President McKinley, were destroyed. The fire was of incendiary origin. Two companies of firemen were caught in the collapse of the roof and cupola and eight men were seriously injured. None will die. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

Theodore Kositch, a Russian, who killed a fellow countryman at Statesboro, Bullock county, Ga., and was on Thursday sentenced to the penitentiary for life, committed suicide in a cell yesterday at Statesboro. When sentenced he said he would rather die than go to the penitentiary. He hung himself with a cord taken from a hammock in his cell.

RAILROADS ARE DISCHARGING MEN

Declare Outlook For Raising New Capital Next Year is Unsatisfactory.

HAVE LOST THEIR NERVE

Pennsylvania Railroad Has Decided to Retrench Although Its Earnings Are 11 Per Cent Greater Than Last Year.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Philadelphia, Nov. 1.—Declaring that the outlook for raising new capital next year is unsatisfactory, the directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company have decided to retrench, and after their meeting today, at which they declared the usual semi-annual dividend of 3 1/2 per cent, they gave out a statement that economy would be the policy of the great corporation during 1908. The announcement came somewhat as a surprise in view of the statement issued from President McCrea's office on Wednesday that the present earnings of the company are eleven per cent, greater than they were at the same period last year.

The company today departed from its usual practice and made public its monthly statement before the stock exchange closed. The statement for September of the lines east of Pittsburgh directly operated shows an increase in gross earnings for September compared with the same month last year of $1,391,000; increase in expenses of $1,858,000, and decrease in net earnings of $467,000. The increase in the net earnings for the nine months ending September 30, compared with the same period last year, is $608,900.

Lines west of Pittsburgh and Erie, directly operated show the following results for September:

Gross earnings increase $859,700; expenses increased $797,100; net earnings increase $62,600; net earnings for nine months, increase $1,671,100.

It is learned that the statement for the six months out of which the semi-annual dividend will be paid, shows a net surplus after all charges and dividends of more than $8,500,000.

Reducing Economizing.

Reading, Pa., Nov. 1.—The Reading Railroad Company is curtailing expenses in its roadway department. Thirty-five laborers were discharged at Bridgeport and about one hundred more will be laid off in the vicinity of Linfield where considerable new work has been in progress. All extra hands employed during the Summer have been suspended. The order affects about 250 men all told, practically Italians.

Thousand Men Laid Off.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 1.—Roswell P. Miller, chairman of the board of directors of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Road, issued an order today discharging 1,000 employees of the locomotive and car building departments in the shops here.

GOOD IN EVERYBODY.

General Booth, of Salvation Army, Tells How to Be Happy.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.) New York, Nov. 1.—General William Booth, founder and head of the Salvation Army, arrived here today on what is probably his last visit to New York. The aged Salvationist is feeble and has been in poor health since his arrival in America five weeks ago. His ailment puzzles his physicians and himself.

"I have now resumed my programme," he said, "and I have grown stronger and stronger. This is an exemplification of my theory that work is the great remedy for all human ills."

Speaking of his meetings, he said: "I find that the people with no religious leanings are more sympathetic than many others. There is in every one a nature that responds to call for goodness and benevolence, and God. This nature may be overlaid with all manner of evil passions, but still it is there. The goodness in the nature of the people will be brought out by patience and determination. So many people think that they must be rich or prominent in the eye of the public in order to have happiness instead of seeing clearly that the only real way to happiness is by the aid of God and goodness, and in making sacrifices. "Religion is not the idea of being moody or melancholy, but rather it is a jolly state of heart. The indifference to religion, that is formal religion, is growing."

PANIC NARROWLY AVERTED.

Dynamite in Trunk Injures Baggage Men.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.) Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 1.—A panic among between 200 and 300 persons in the Union Station was narrowly averted today when a terrific explosion occurred in the baggage room under the waiting room. A quantity of dynamite packed in a checked trunk was set off, presumably by concussion, due to handling the trunk. James Lyons, a baggage assessor, and David Chappell, a porter, were seriously but not fatally injured. Charles Platch has been arrested.

The national board of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues finished the business of the annual meeting of the association in New York yesterday with a six-hour session at which protests and appeals were considered. Among the decisions reached were the following: Pitcher Stackpole was awarded to Richmond, Va., against Holyoke, Mass., and L. C. Stevens was awarded to Sumter, S. C.

PRESIDENT AND HIS CABINET.

Financial Situation Regarded as Favorable—Other Matters.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.) Washington, Nov. 1.—President Roosevelt was in consultation with all the members of his cabinet, except Secretary Taft, for nearly three hours today. Secretary Cortelyou was the last to leave the Cabinet room. The financial situation was discussed carefully, but it was stated that the satisfactory condition of financial affairs at the present moment warranted no action and no statement for publication would be made as the result of today's consideration.

Secretary Garfield, with whom the President is consulting freely regarding Federal appointments in the new State of Oklahoma, said that the slate of appointments had been nearly decided upon.

Because of the State elections next Tuesday there will be no cabinet session on that day. President Roosevelt will go to Oyster Bay to vote; Postmaster General Meyer will vote in Boston and Secretary Cortelyou, if the business of the Treasury Department permits, will go to his New York home for the same purpose. It is understood that Secretary Root and Attorney General Bonaparte also will be away from the city that day.

That Big November Sale.

Promptly at 9 o'clock Monday morning, November 4th, the big November sale at J. H. Rehder & Co.'s will start. Cut prices will be the rule in every one of the many large departments. The sale will last but one week.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was. Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery. Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandruff, Falling Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats the life from the roots of human hair. Newbro's Herpicide destroys this germ and consequently restores the hair to its natural state.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
